

University of Ulm
Department of Psychotherapy and Psychosomatic Medicine
Center for Psychotherapy Research Stuttgart

23rd Ulm Workshop on Empirical Research in Psychoanalysis

European Conference

Methodology of Follow-up Studies

May 19 - 20, 2000

Thursday, May 18, 2000

2.00 pm - 6.00 pm

Pre-Conference Study Group:

Daniel S. Schechter (New York): Methodology of video infant observation

Friday, May 19, 2000

Horst Kächele Welcome

9.00 am - 10.30 am

Hans Kordy, Bernd Puschner & Robert Percevic (Stuttgart):

Longitudinal perspectives in follow-up research of outpatient psychotherapy

10.30 am - 11.00 am Coffee Break

11.00 am - 12.30 pm

Friedrich Breyer (Konstanz):

How to retrieve economical data in follow-up

12.30 pm - 1.30 pm Lunch

1.30 pm - 3.00 pm

Tilman Grande (Heidelberg):

Follow-up after inpatient therapy

3.00 pm - 3.30 pm Coffee Break

3.30 pm - 5.00 pm

Beatrice Krämer & TR-EAT (Stuttgart):

Conceptualization, assessment and description of course and outcome in eating disorders in the German Multicenter Study TR-EAT

5.00 pm - 5.30 pm Coffee Break

5.30 pm - 7.00 pm

Jörn von Wietersheim (Ulm) & Project TR-EAT:
Definition of success and outcome in personality data in the German Multicenter
Eating Disorder Study (TR-EAT)

7.00 pm Dinner Party

Saturday, May 20, 2000

9.00 am – 10.30 am
Marianne Leuzinger-Bohleber (Kassel) Manfred Beutel (Giessen) &
Ulrich Stuhr (Hamburg):
The German psychoanalysis follow-up study

10.30 am - 11.00 am Coffee Break

11.00 am - 12.30 pm
Rolf Sandell (Stockholm):
How to design the next psychoanalytic follow-up study - some thoughts

12.30 pm - 1.30 pm Lunch

1.30 pm - 3.00 pm
Jörg Merten & Rainer Krause (Saarbrücken): Process evaluation and follow-up studies

3.00 pm - 3.30 pm Coffee Break

3.30 pm - 5.00 pm
Imre Szecsödy (Stockholm) & COMPSED:

How to study, compare and follow-up different training models for psychoanalytic education